* Events with an '' are registered as "official" SCA events. Since this calendar also serves as a planning aid for future events, those events without an '' may become official when the event is registered and an article for publication is received by this office. Please let this office know of your long-range plans so that a date can be reserved for your event.

+ Events with an '+' are out-of-Outlands events wishing our support and participation. Let's go have fun!

Her Majesty apologies for the inaccurate reporting of dates of late. The mundane calendar referenced at work was found to be in error and has been dealt with severely.

GREETINGS UNTO THE GOOD PEOPLE OF THE OUTLANDS!

Except for the many preparations to attend the Estrella War this has been a very quiet time in the Outlands. Soon we will be making the final plans for the Arts and Sciences Competition and shortly it will be time for the Crown Tournament. We are looking forward to further meeting our good people at these future events:

March 7th -- Outlands Arts & Sciences, Fontaine dans Sable
21st -- Couteuriers Defender & Court of Inquiry, Caerthe
28th -- Squash the Rose Defender, Scorpion's Hollow
April 18th -- Outlands Crown Lists, al-Barran
25th -- Loch Salann's A & S Competition, Atenveldt
May 23rd -- Grand Outlandish, al-Barran
30th -- Outlands Coronation, Dragonsspine

Please be reminded that prospective entrants and consorts should counsel with the Crown about their intent to enter the Crown Tournament and to clarify any points in question. April 18th is just around the corner!

For now, we remain in service to the Outlands and her people.

King of the Outlands

Queen of the Outlands

VERT AND OR!!

If you have attended the Estrella War, you had the opportunity to view the new set of tabbards which have been made to add to the regalia of the Outlands. Tabbards and new standards have been made for both the King and the Queen each depicting their arms. Tabbards were made for both the King's Champion and the Queen's Champion, the members of the Queen's Guard, and the Captain of the King's Guard. The Queen's Guard can be identified by a vert tabbard with a single or rose; front, back and sleeves. The Captain of the King's Guard has a vert tabbard with a argent stag, or embattlements at the hem and two argent stripes on the sleeves.

For the Champion's, the Crown wished to find a symbol to best serve to represent a Champion. After brief research, it was found that the first King's Champion was proclaimed by William the Conquerer at his Coronation in 1068 ("Costume in Fashion", Norris, Part 1). It was decided then to choose a symbol which represented William the Conquerer. Not having a standard of heraldry which goes back to 1068, we had to dig a little harder to find a symbol. William used a seal which depicted a crown having projections topped with three balls. According to Fox-Davies, it is believed that the heraldic charge known as the trefoil may have derived from this crown style. Therefore, both the King and Queen's Champions have an argent trefoil on the tabbard; front, back and sleeves. The King's Champion's is vert with or embattlements and an argent stag while the Queen's Champion's tabbard is vert, bordered with or roses, and an argent doe.

These tabbards will hopefully last a long while to be passed on to future bearers of these titles.

Kathryn, Queen of the Outlands

Those who helped me in this project include: Lord Bertrand d'Avignon, Lady Chataigne, Lady Starfire, Lady Beatrix and her friend. Mostly this has been my gift to the Outlands.

OUTLANDS ARTS AND SCIENCES COMPETITION

The Shire Fontaine dans Sable joins with the Crown of the Outlands to invite all to participate in the first Kingdom Arts and Sciences Competition on March 7th and 8th, A.S. XXI, at the San Juan Community College, 4601 College Blvd, Farmington, New Mexico.

Final registration and set-up will begin sharply at 9:00 a.m. Registration will close at 10:30 a.m. -- no entries will be received after this time. Those who have pre-registered may make last minute adjustments at the door to the information they originally sent.

There will be a $2.00 site fee to defray costs of the event levied on each adult for the weekend activities. There will be no additional cost to participate in the Competition or the Prize Tournament.

The performing arts categories will be judged during the Potluck Feast beginning at 6:00 p.m. It is encouraged that those entries in the Culinary Arts categories be made available for the Potluck, or that you bring a dish to feed at least 8. Roast Beast, breads, fruits, and cheeses will be provided if you bring a dish to share. The fee to join in the Potluck without a dish is $5.00.

A Prize Tournament will be held on Sunday morning beginning at 10 a.m. SHARP! Entrants in the tournament are required to enter at least two (2) items in the Arts and Sciences Competition.

There is limited crash space available. Motel accommodations are available at the Bluffview Motel, 3700 Bloomfield Highway, (1-505-327-6231) to SCA members at a reduced rate. Rates are $16 plus tax for one person, and $2.00 for each child, and $5.00 for each extra adult. For reservations, call Betty or Cheryl.

We invite our neighbors of Atenveldt, and any others, to share their talents and join in our Competition. A Guest Champion will be declared from among those who travel to compete. The Guest Champion will be the entrant whose scores have the highest total points. There is no minimum number of entries, but only the highest 12 scores will be totalled out of a maximum of 15 entries.

A Grand Prize will be awarded to both the Outlands Champion and our Guest Champion. There will also be prizes awarded for the winners of each of the 22 separate categories. The entrants have put a lot of time and energy into their entries and we feel this is just recognition of their skills. We would like for the prizes to be not only representative of the category entered, but they should also be representative of our talented Outlanders. We therefore request that Baronies, Shires, and individuals donate a prize for this Competition. The Kingdom will be providing the Grand Prizes. Please register and send your prize donation to Lady Beatrix whose address appears at the end of this section. Please donate or pledge a prize as soon as possible. Thank you.

Hodag Feast and Tourney

To One and All, Greetings!

Help! Help! The Shire of Caer Mithin Halle is in desperate need of a defender to protect us from the Dreaded Hodags. We will be holding a Feast and Defender Tourney and invite all to come and partake. The fee for the Feast is $7.00 and the Site Fee is $3.00. Please reserve by the 10th of March as we have limited space. Also, fees for the feast at the door will be $8.00 and the site will be $4.00.

This is a camping event and the site will be open at 12:00 noon, Friday the 20th, and will close at the end of the Tourney on Sunday the 22nd. This is a discretely wet site. The menu includes some of the following:

Hodag Surprise
Cornish Game Hens Stuffed With Wild Rice a la Orange
Cheeses and Breads
Minted Tea and Plain Tea

Entertainment will be supplied during the feasting. And of course, there will be much reveling!

The Ladies of Les Couturieres de Caerthe invite you to their Second Defender Tournament and Masked Ball, scheduled for Saturday, March 21st, at St. Andrews Seminary, located at 1050 South Birch St., near the corner of Colorado Blvd. and Mississippi Ave., Denver, CO. This is the same site as the first Crown Tourney of the Outlands.

Their Royal Majesties, Kathryn and Johann will be in attendance, so the double elimination tournament will begin after opening court. Court is scheduled for 11 AM, authorizations are scheduled for 12 noon, and the tournament is due to begin promptly at 1 PM. Fighting is indoors and showers are available. Baron Sir Olaf, our present Defender, invites all fighters to attend and make efforts to take his title! The winner of the tourney will be the recipient of several prizes including a chainmail coif, the making of next year's Twelfth-night costume, a scroll, the honor of bearing the title of Defender, and carrying the household Sword and Favor for the year. Prizes will also be awarded for the Most Chivalrous Fighter and Best Dressed Fighter.

Many festivities are planned, including: games, dancing, a Court of Love, and contests: Best Garb/Ladies, Best Garb/Lords, Best Mask, and Most Elegant Tablesetting. A Bardic competition will be held during dinner. Musicians, minstrals, storytellers, and others with entertainment to share are encouraged to compete for a wonderful prize.

A sumptuous four-course Feast and Grand Subtlety will be served honoring their Majesties and of course our past and present Defenders! Dinner is scheduled to include:

Course the First (Being on the Table):	Fresh Fruit and Vegetables Cheese and Nuts Apple Cider
Course the Second:	Chicken and Dumpling Stew Assorted Breads Seasoned and Honeyed Breads
Course the Third:	Golden Meatballs and Rice Green Beans Almondeine
Course the Fourth:	Roast Beef Buttered Noodles Baked Spiced Apples

* Grand Subtlety (a surprize) and desert sideboard *

Cost for the feast is $8 per person before March 1st with an additional $2 being charged for the site fee, which also includes a light lunch of Dragonstail Breads, Sliced Beef, Cheese, and cookies. After March 1st, the feast fee becomes $10. Prepayment is required unless arrangements are made with the autocrat. Persons wishing to serve or help in the kitchen will be offered a half-price fee, but must contact the feastocrat before March 1st. Well-behaved children are invited, if supervised by parents and will be admitted for half-price. Crash space is available for our friends who would like to come visit from the North or the South.

An auction will be held during the desert course to benefit the Kingdom Coffers. Anyone wishing to donate items are encouraged to do so. No prior notification is required, just bring your items to the event.

Directions to the site: Take your best route to I-25 towards Denver. Take the Colorado Blvd. exit. Go right (north) on Colorado to Mississippi. Turn right (east) on Mississippi. Turn left (north) onto Birch. Enter the parking lot on the right side of the road.

 Directions concerning the tournament, armor, Feast, setup times, etc., will be posted on the door. Please read this information before unloading your fire chariot.

The event we've all been waiting for. No, no, it's not an early Grand Outlandish or anything like that. This is something really exciting.

The video screenplay which many Outlanders have been working on for the last several months is finally finished and is going to be broadcast on the telly.

OUTLANDISH TALES

VOLUME I, EPISODE 5, "DEATH OF INNOCENCE"

On Thursday March 5, at 8:00 PM on the Community Cable Access, ABQ channel # 27, our fine show will air. There will be repeats on March 6, at 3 in the afternoon and again on Sunday March 8, at 6:00 PM. That's channel twenty-seven on the cable.

Don't miss this epic tale. If you don't have a TV with cable or you miss the Thursday night airing, show up at fighter practice in Al-Barran on that Sunday and I'm sure you'll find someone with cable.

SEE YOU AT THE MOVIES...

Master Ulrich Von Matanuska

Oriental Revel

The Chinese New Year is upon us and on March 14th & 15th, the Citadel of the Southern Pass is pleased to invite one and all to welcome the Year of the Rabbit. There will be an Oriental Revel and two prize tourneys.

The feast will be oriental in nature, with a dessert contest for the best dessert, oriental if possible. The prize will be a piece of silver. Dinner will begin at 6:30 p.m., or after court.

* THE FEAST *

Appetizers
Szechuan Chicken
Yaki Mandu--meat stuffing in wonton wraps
Kim Pop--rice and seafood in seaweed wraps
Cucumber Kim Chee
Tocuk--rice dumpling soup
Rice
Saki
Tea
Fruit

Chopsticks will be provided with a chopstick eating contest for the lords and the ladies. A kissing auction will also be held to benefit the Citadel of the Southern Pass.

On Sunday the 15th, there will be a brunch served at 10:30 a.m. The lists will open at 11 a.m., and the tourney will begin promptly at 12:30 p.m. There will be a Shani Tourney to follow. The prize for 1st place will be 2 oz. of silver, and 2nd place will be a 1 oz. copper coin for both events.

Please make reservations and crash space arrangements in advance. The site fee for the feast will be $2, and the feast fee will be $5. Since we will be dining oriental style, please bring rugs, pillows and feast gear. For more information or reservations, please contact the autocrats, and please make your checks payable to SCA-Citadel of the Southern Pass.

Dance Workshop ~ Revel ~ Prize Tourney

The Citadel of the Southern Pass is honored to present Lady Rebecca of Lancaster as the instructor for a dance workshop on Saturday, April 11th. The workshop will be followed by a candlelit supper, musical entertainments, more dancing, spring revelry and a prize tourney the next day.

In an effort to encourage our neighbors to take advantage of this educational opportunity, we are keeping fees very low--only $4.00 for the entire event. This fee will include the feast.

The site will open for set-up at 1 p.m. with the workshop starting promptly at 2 p.m. Tea and apple juice will be provided as refreshment for the dancers. This will be serious instruction time. Please plan to attend as we do not plan to teach the dances again during the evening revelry. Table set-up will begin at 6 p.m. The sideboard supper will include: Roast duck and wild rice, Kapusta and kielbasa, various appetizers, breads and cheeses. The dessert board will feature: Rosewhip Tart, Babka, Baklava, Fresh fruit and lots of whip cream. (This feast will include many of the foods from our 12th night which were magically frozen. If you missed them the first time, join us now!) Singers and musicians are welcome. Lady Shindea de Jilbear will be coordinating the musical entertainments.

A prize tourney will be held at our fighter practice site in Memorial Park on Sunday. Lists will open at 11 a.m. with the tourney to start promptly at noon. Crash space is available with advance arrangements. Advance feast reservations required. Please contact the autocrat with requests for information or feast and crash space reservations.

THE SAINT PATRICKS DAY PARADE IN DENVER!!!

The Denver Saint Patrick's Day Parade will be held on March 14th, in the morning. The parade starts at 10 AM, with formation, etc. taking place somewhat earlier. A society contingent is being formed for this parade! We need dependable people with nice costumes, armor, banners (lots of banners), etc. if we want to make a good showing. This parade will be televised in 11 states (2 kingdom minimum!) and gives our group a wonderful opportunity to expose ourselves (maybe I should rephrase that!). If you are interested in marching (if you want to march at all!) you must contact me ASAP. Our spaces will be filled on a first come first served basis, and if you wait too long you may not get to march at all (although I tried to reserve an adequate number of spaces). Sincerely; Lord James Qui Connait, (303) 457-2664 or write c/o James Bristol, 4210 E. 100th Ave #543, Thornton, CO 80229.

Spring Thaw!

Are your muscles stiff? Is your sword (heaven forbid) rusty? Do you yearn to be involved in battle? Les Trois Femmes have decided that a tourney is in order to banish the blues of winter. April 4, A.S. XXI is the day (it never snows in Aarquelle). The tourney is for heavy weapons and will start at noon, but for those of you who enjoy rapier fighting, we will be having afencing practice at about nine a.m. A potluck-stone soup feast is being planned so bring something for the pot or feast or make your excuses to The Three Ladies. We are going to have a dessert auction (something else to tempt the senses), with delights prepared by The Three. A fire pit is being built in the hopes of a bardic circle (weather and the local fire department permitting). The site is at 522 Hewitt St., this is a private residence and the site is wet. We are attempting to provide parking in a vacant lot across the street, more info on that is forth coming. Site fee is $2.00 and there is no feast fee. NO PETS, PLEASE.

Third Crown

Their Majesties, Johann and Kathryn have decreed that the Third Crown Tournament of the Outlands will be held April 18 and 19 in the Barony of al-Barran.

Thus the people of al-Barran invite the gentlefolk of the Outlands to San Gabriel Park for this weekend event. This is not a camping event, but there is plenty of crash space in the Barony. There are modern facilities BBQ grills, tables, electricity and pets are allowed on leashes. This is a wet site for wine and beer only. Please be discreet with any other potables. Crown Tournament will be on Saturday and Court will be late in the afternoon. There will be a pot-luck revel Saturday night, no formal feast as the site must be cleared by 9pm. Sunday there will be an Easter Egg hunt, please contact the autocrat if you would like to bring decorated eggs. Also there will be a tournament of some type on Sunday. The site will open at 10am both days for set up and site fee will be $5.00. If you plan on attending the revel, please also plan on bringing a pot luck dish of some sort. A tenative schedule has not yet been set up, however, there will be peer circles over the weekend.

If you need crash space, please contact the autocrat as soon as possible, as crash space reservations will only be accepted until April 5. More information will be in later issues.

CORONATION

The Barony of Dragonsspine is honored to host the Third Coronation for the Kingdom of the Outlands.

WHEN: Saturday and Sunday
May 30-31
WHERE: Lions Club Camp for Handicapped Children, north of Woodland Park, CO
FEES: $10 includes the daytime site,
Sat. evening feast and
Sun. morning brunch
$5 overnite site fee
(There will be crash space available in Colo. Springs.)
(Children 12 and under are half price, under 6 are free, HOWEVER, the overnite fee is $5 for each individual.)
AUTOCRAT: Duchess Selene of the Sky
Penny Tegen 303/597-5259
2926 Valarie Circle
Colorado Springs, CO 80917

There is no camping allowed and the fee for staying on site in your own vehicle is also $5.

Tentative feast menu: salats, breads and butter, hunter's stew, roast pork, a solteltie contest which is to be added to the dessert sideboard. The contest theme is: Glory in the Outlands.

The anticipated events will include a living chess game on Saturday between two nobles (the King and Crown Prince, should they be willing), courts on Saturday and Sunday, Coronation on Saturday evening and the Queen's Champion Tourney on Sunday morning. (Note: All proposed events will be changed at the direction of the King and Queen.) The living chess board will consist of squares 6'x6'. the moves will alternate between the King and Prince. Each move will consist of the advancement of three men. Should an opposing man already occupy a square, combat will determine the final possessor of the square. Should a combatant step out of his square three times he loses the square.

FROM THE KINGDOM TREASURER, Unto the Populace of the Outlands, Greetings!

Herewith is a report of the activity in the Kingdom general fund from December 1 through December 31, 1986.

Beginning balance	$1,315.26
Receipts:
Interest earned	4.12
Disbursements:
King & Queen's travel fund	48.01
Service charge	.60
Ending balance	$1,270.77

Our first year as a Kingdom has gone well over all. The next issue of the Herald will contain our Domesday report for the year. I thank all who have helped make my job easier. The new year should be even better.

Regarding Domesday reports, as of January 31, 1987, only NINE groups have sent their Domesday reports. My thanks to Caer Galen, Caer Mithin Halle, the Citadel, Dragonsspine, Fontaine dans Sable, Great River, Scorpion's Hollow, Unser Hafen, & Windkeep. I would hope by the time this missive appears in the Outlandish Herald that all groups have sent me their Domesday reports. Remember: It is policy from the National Treasurer that IF A LOCAL GROUP DOES NOT REPORT, THEIR NAME WILL BE FORWARDED TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS FOR SUSPENSION.

On to other matters. It is now national policy that the Kingdom Treasurer's signature must be included on any bank accounts opened after July 27, 1986. Accounts opened prior to this do not require the Kingdom Treasurer's signature, but it is still a good idea.

Also regarding bank accounts, when a group treasurer reports to the group seneschal, you should include a copy of the current month's bank statement, showing that its ending balance reconciles to the treasurer's report for that month. When reporting to the Kingdom, a copy of the bank statement(s) should also be attached for the period covered. I expect at least quarterly reports from each group to me. Any treasurer not reporting to me at least quarterly will be reported to their group seneschal, the Kingdom seneschal, and their Majesties.

Yours in service,

Lady Ursula d'Arcy
Treasurer, Kingdom of the Outlands

Attention, alle Scribes!

Greetings unto the scribes of the Outlands! I am most honored to accept the reins of this office from the first scribe of the Kingdom of the Outlands, Lady Wybke von Drachenfeld. The primary duties of this office are to provide the Crown with scrolls for the awards they wish to give and to reduce the scroll backlog for awards given to members of the Outlands. To this end, I request your cooperation and participation. I am not sure that the list of active scribes for this kingdom is up to date. Would scribes who represent branches or guilds please contact me with a list of currently active scribes in your group or area? If scribes would like to contact me individually, that will be fine too, as the more scribes I hear from, the more scroll assignments can be made. Those who are new to our kingdom or new to the arts of calligraphy and illumination are encouraged to send a sample of their work, perhaps in the form of a promissory Award of Arms scroll, the text of which I have provided below. All active scribes are invited to send an AoA promissory scroll to this office to provide the Crown with a variety of scrolls. Keep the illumination simple on these, as I hope to use some of them as masters for copies.

Other plans for this office include the provision of scroll texts and masters for the new Kingdom awards; holding a Scribes' Workshop or symposium, perhaps in the fall; and keeping a scrapbook of calligraphy and illumination samples and of scrolls presented in this kingdom. All scribes are encouraged to take photos of their work for their own records. Zeroxes of smaller scrolls will also work. Please also contribute photos or copies to the Kingdom Scribes' Scrapbook. Include the following information: Names of calligraphers and illuminators who worked on the scroll, the name of the recipient, the date and event at which the scroll was presented. This office can also provide instructional information to those who would like to learn more about this medievalart. In conclusion, special appreciation and thanks are due to the scribes of Caer Galen whoprovided the scrolls for the Kingdom Arts and Sciences competition. I hope to hear from all Outlands' scribes soon. I remain...

Promissory AoA text:
(Leave room for name)

Whereas it has come to Our notice that, through your divers great efforts, you have considerably enriched Our kingdom, it is thus Our pleasure to reward you with an Award of Arms. We at this time grant you the rights and charge you with the responsibilities of this rank. We charge you to consult with Ourselves and Our heralds to determine suitable and unique Arms. By Our hand this (space) day of (space), Anno Societatis (space), being (space) of the Common Era.

(Leave room for signatures.)
King and Queen of the Outlands

It was born out of the frustration of not being able to go to ASXX, and being so much fun, we have decided to relive the joy of CABIN FEVER with--that's right, you guessed it--

Cabin Fever II

It's been awhile since you've been to a camping event, and Outlandish is on the horizon. You're sitting there in your abode wondering whether or not you have everything you need for the summer season. Well, have I got an event for you. On the weekend of April 25th and 26th, in the wooded mountains of al-Barran, we will be celebrating--a week early--the Society's 21st Birthday. (Bring alcohol; we're legal now!!) The site is the old Outlandish area, otherwise known as Cedro Peak (see map). We will open the gates at around 4 p.m. on Friday, or whenever the first person gets there. Saturday, we will hold the 2nd Annual Christina Defender Tournament. For those of you who know her, it is a good reason to fight, and to those who don't, it's still a good reason to fight. The top three places and their escorts will be provided with a feast on Saturday night, and the winner will receive Christina's favor and the honor of joining the ranks of Christina Defenders (a lifetime position).

Saturday night we will have an informal Bardic Circle with all performers, singers, dancers, drummers, jugglers, etc., welcome. On Sunday, we will have the ever popular Woods Battle Prize Tournament. There will be a $1 entry fee and a $.50 resurrection fee for the tourney Prizes will be announced next month, but rest assured that they will be as marvelous as last year's.

This is a wet site, but it has no water, so please bring your own. At this time, no water buffalo is being planned. We are also planning on using on-site johns (one each), but if the event looks like it will be big enough to need more, we will import them. Please help us out on this. If you are planning on going, please let us know in advance so that we have a rough estimate to work with.

For any pre-event information, contact Lord Launce or Lady Elinor. However, if we can't be found on the site (due to possibly being in the hospital having a child), Sir Artan or Lord Lief will be glad to assist you.

There will be plenty of fun for EVERYONE, all for the low, low site fee of $1. Once again, please let us know if you are planning to attend.

MINOR CORRECTIONS

Or, I Know What I Meant to Put!

By Lady Elinor du Pont

This is a continuation of last month's article on how to fill out Device Submission forms. Last month we got through the name line. The next line is "I () do () do not give permission to have minor corrections made to the grammar and/or spelling of my name." The minor corrections line could save a great number of you months of lag time. When a device goes through a Kingdom College of Heralds meeting, it takes a minimum of 20 minutes. If this device is then sent back because of minor changes, most of this time must be spent again when it comes back to us. We think the minor change line is one of the most important and useful tools in preventing this kind of thing.

The most common corrections involve the grammar of a foreign name. Putting a masculine article with a feminine name or word, or vice versa. Carl Table wants a Spanish persona, so he submits his name as Carlos de la Mesa. His wife Mary thinks that since she is female she should submit her name as Maria de el Mesa. This is a very wasy correction to make and shouldn't affect the aesthetics of your name at all. Other minor corrections can be something as easy as adding or dropping a letter. Using my name as an example. I submitted my name as Elinor du Ponte and documented du Ponte as meaning "of the bridge." I was then told that du Pont should be without an 'e' at the end. Since the change line was marked, the letter was dropped and no time was lost.

Another example of a spelling correction might come in when you've told us in you documentation that your name means "of the table," but you have put "de la Masa." This kind of correction ties in with the next line of the form which says "I prefer the () sound () meaning of my name." If you have checked that you prefer the meaning, then we would make the correction.*

Minor corrections are just that, small things. We will change, add, or delete a letter or two for you, but that's about it. We will not change entire words or add or delete anything major. If your name needs one minor correction, we'll do it. If it needs two or more, you are out of the minor league and it will be sent back to you.

However, if you check that you do not give permission, or check nothing at all, your submission will be sent back even if it only needs an 'e' changed to an 'i'. If a submission is sent back, you can usually count on at least three months being added.

Another way in which this line is helpful is if we cannot document your name. (Now, this should no longer be a problem since you've read last month's article and you've documented your name.) We can sometimes suggest alternative names that either sound like your choice or mean the same thing.

The whole purpose of the submission form is to give us enough information to process you submission on the first try. However, these two lines are the most important to us in saving ourselves time, and you too. Please take the extra ten seconds to mark these lines now that you know why.

*More on the sound, meaning line. If you makr that you like the sound of your name and you have "de la Masa" meaning of the table," it will then be our job to inform you that your name really means "of the dough." But if you put that you like the meaning, then we will change "Masa" to the correct spelling of "Mesa."

Next Month: Conclusion

Midwinter, One last time

Greetings Gentle Folk,

Not only are we all recovered from Midwinter, we are foolish enough to autocrat another event (see details elsewhere). But meanwhile, I promised to tell you what actually went on. Here are some of the highlights gathered from several sources. I apologize for any omissions.

There was a chess final of the tournament that had been progressing in the weeks previous. The finalists were Duke Koris of Natterhelm and Lord Dennis the Wright. In a tough game, Lord Dennis took the honors.

Lady Adelicia sponsored a costume contest with several categories. The winners were:

Best Female: A tie between Mistress Demelza Felinnoir and Rowanne. Mistress Demelza received a string of amethyst beads and Rowanne received a string of garnet beads.

Best Male: Flagrante Delecto (aka Sir Gareth of Bloodwine Gorge). He received assorted trim.

Best Couple: Lady Rebecca of Lancaster and Kevin Kerwin. She received various pearls and beads.

Best Group: Starfire and her group. She received gold trim.

Lord Launce Lyttle sponsored a Brewing Competition. The winners:

Best Beer: Lord Kristjan Olaffson. He will receive a can of extract if we can catch him.

Best Wine: Lady Chataigne the Meek. She received a decanter for her wonderful apple wine.

Best Mead: Duchess Leah Kasmira. She received a carboy.

There was also much merriment due to the yearly distribution of mistletoe, which was distributed by Pan himself this year, looking much like Jarl Gunwaldt. There was marvelous dancing led as usual by Lady Rebecca, and we were also entertained by the wonderful voices of the carolers, the beating of the drums and the fantastic dancing of our dancers.

In a most touching scene, Lady Adelicia received a new sewing machine from many of the people of the barony who wished to express their love for her and their appreciation for the fine work that she does.

There were also two surprisingly and wonderfully brief courts.

Baronial Court: The officers were brought before the populace and introduced. Then the Baronial Guard was called. They were wearing beautiful new tabards which were made by then-Lord Artan. Lord Marcus the Vintner was called forward and made a new member of the guard. Lady Elinor du Pont received the Order of the Scorpion. Lady Adelicia Hohen-Schwangau received the Order of the Russian Thistle. Lord Christopheles the Clueless received the Scorpion's Sting. Mistress Kathryn of Iveragh was inducted into the OREO by the OREO Tyrant of Arms.

Kingdom Court: Lord Launce Lyttle du Pont received the Stag's Blood. Mariah-lyn the Charmian received her AoA. Tarkin received his AoA. I'm fairly sure more happened, but I haven't talked to anyone who remembers what.

A brief list of lost and found follows:

Lost: A clipboard containing Baronial notes. Please return to Master Mark Lasie.

Found: A lasagna pan, a silver-colored cup, a belt of chains with a white ribbon attached, and a white and gold headband.

As I said before, Midwinter was a wonderful event, and I am highly looking forward to next year when it will be someone else's headache completely.

In Service,

Lady Elinor du Pont

CHARTER FOR
THE ORDER OF THE FLOS AUSTRALIS
OF THE CITADEL OF THE SOUTHERN PASS

I. There shall exist in the Barony of the Citadel of the Southern Pass an award, known as the Order of the Flos Australis, which may be given by the Baron and/or Baroness, subject to the pleasure of the Crown, to those persons who have demonstrated excellence in the arts and sciences, giving freely of their talents to enrich the barony.

II. The holders of the award shall be styled Companions of the Flos Australis, and shall be entitled to place the initials C.F.A. after their names.

III. The insignia of the order shall be, subject to approval by the SCA College of Arms, some rendition of: Azure, two piles inverted argent, in chief a sunflower slipped and leaved Or.

IV. Companionship in the Order shall be restricted to armigers.

V. The Order shall carry precedence lower than precedential principality orders but greater than simple Awards of Arms.

VI. Amendments to this charter shall be made by the Coronet of the Citadel of the Southern Pass, subject to approval by the Crown of the Outlands.

By Our hands this 17th day of January, Anno Societatis Twenty-One, Being 1987 Gregorian.

IT'S MAY!

THE HOUSEHOLD OF YEWWOOD MANOR is moving to its new and permanent home. Lord Tod and Lady Ceallach hereby invite one and all to a gala HOUSEWARMING REVEL to be held on Saturday and Sunday, May 9 and 10, A.S. XXII.

Come and join us for a weekend of feasting, fun, frolic and (weather permitting), fighting. Also plan on mirth, merriment, mayflowers and (weather permitting), maypoles!

A May Queen of Love and Beauty will be chosen on Saturday morning to "rule" for the weekend. (Method of choice to be decided later).

We will start the celebration at 10:00 A.M. on Saturday and continue through Sunday evening or exhaustion, whichever comes first.

There will be NO site fee! However, each guest is asked to please bring a Pot Luck dish for the Saturday evening feast. THIS IS A WET SITE!!

There is crash space available as well as commercial campgrounds and numerous motels within two miles.

Although there is no parking at the actual site, there is ample parking within 1 block. (The one disadvantage of moving into a complex).

The Autocrat's must insist that there be ABSOLUTELY NO SMOKING INDOORS at this event, as there is a severe smoke allergy in the family.

If you wish to come on Friday evening, you are most welcome. Please let up know far enough in advance that we will be expecting you.
